

July Bride Is Shower Honoree

The Arlington avenue home of Mrs. John H. Fess was the setting for an attractively arranged post nuptial party given to honor Mrs. David Schrimsher, of 1617 Arlington avenue, the former Doris Kirkham, whose marriage was solemnized July 4 in Las Vegas, Nevada. Assisting as co-hostesses were Mrs. Evelyn Schooley and Hazel Lamping.

Guessing games featured the evening's entertainment and beautiful gifts were presented to Mrs. Schrimsher. Delicious buffet refreshments were served from a table lovely with arrangements of all-white gladioli.

Present were the honor guest and Mrs. Mae Richardson, Ethel Parmore, Marjorie Houshelt, Virginia Thompson, Barbara Delsigne, Phyllis Fluhrer, Ruth Davis, Ella Schwartz, Bettina Miller, and Sybil Moffitt.

RECEIVE WINGS . . . Sixteen Brownies, gathered in First Christin Church Friday afternoon, flew up to Girl Scouting—and in the same ceremony Mmes. Krauszer, Bischoff and Chapman were invested as Scout leaders by Olive Dickson, Girl Scout field executive. (Herald photo).

Brownies 'Fly Up' in Candlelight Service

On Friday afternoon at the Christian Church 16 happy Brownies flew up to Girl Scouting. In a simple ceremony the Brownie leaders presented the coveted wings which indicate that a Girl Scout has been a Brownie. The new Girl Scout leaders pinned on their Girl Scout pins and handed them a white candle and trefol.

In a beautiful candlelight service the new Girl Scouts repeated the laws, slogan, motto and promise that they will live by in the years to come. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by nearly one hundred Scouts and guests, refreshments of punch and cake were served.

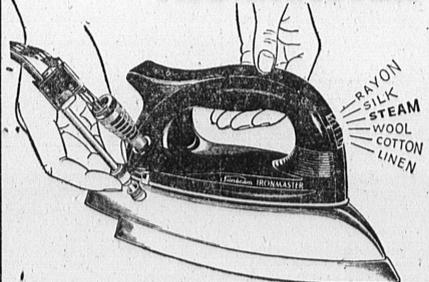

Linda Lee Schmid and Carol Cook from Troop 406, and Jarace Dabbs from 637 are now in Troop 610, which is sponsored by Nativity Church. Karen Crist of Troop 631 is now affiliated with Troop 184, which is sponsored by the Christian Church.

Diana Cook and Diana Hunter of Troop 435, Susan Severin, Diane Hinshaw, Sally Jones, Lorella Robison of Troop 576 and Paula Bischoff, Mardell Clayton, Sharon Giles, Susan Higdon, Barbara Krauszer and Carol Shinoda of Troop 631 will all be members of Troop 1289.

Cindy Tolson Celebrates Natal Date

Cynthia Lee, year-old daughter of the Robert H. Tolsons of 4354 122nd street, was the incentive for an enjoyable children's party Sunday afternoon, when her parents entertained at home.

A merry-go-round cake, baked by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. B. W. Roberts, accented the decorative theme, and clowns, boxes of animal cookies, and toy balloons added to the children's enjoyment.

Lovely gifts were presented by Leslie Barrington, Christine Moyer, Debra Agapito, Kathy and Susan Kelly, Richard Marshall, David Roberts, Michael Leech, and Nancy and Candy Denman.

Also present were the children's mothers, and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Roberts (this birthday occurred the same day), Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Witt, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Tolson Jr., Mrs. Art Long (Gerry Faren), of Ventura.

On Friday evening Cynthia's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tolson Sr., presented their gift before their departure for convention.

Young Matron Is Showered

Complimenting Mrs. R. D. Adams (Eileen Miles) of Hermosa Beach, upon arrival of her son, Laurence Scott Adams, Mrs. Gerald G. Grubb opened her home for a lovely baby shower. Sharing hostess honors were the Mmes. Kenneth Dudley, Hollywood Riviera; Ellis Owen, Redondo; Charles Hutcherson, La Habra, and J. B. Miles, Torrance.

Games with prizes occupied the guests and lovely party refreshments were served.

Present were the baby's grandparents, Mrs. Jane Adams, Redondo; Mrs. Earl A. Miles and Mrs. Della Moon, Torrance, and the following Torrance guests: Mesdames Joe Settling, Ed Ingram, George Peckham Jr., T. L. Parker, Eva Whitney, D. J. Skidmore, J. N. Rogers, H. L. Rood, Misses Jo Ann Ingram, and Beverly Whitney.

Gala Reception Honors Grand Amaranth Officers

On Thursday evening Lomita Court 61, Order of Amaranth, held a reception in Torrance Masonic Temple, for Sally Weber, grand representative to Australia. She and her escort, Past Royal Patron Burr M. Bebe, occupied the throne with Royal Matron Maybelle Spencer and Royal Patron Eugene Spencer.

The honor guest, beautifully gowned and carrying red roses, is held in very high esteem as was demonstrated by the number of supreme and grand officers present from as far north as Medford, Oregon. The two supreme officers present were May McCormick, supreme fraternal correspondent, and Dr. Morton Gardner, deputy supreme patron to Arizona. Grand officers included Grand Royal Matron Cosy Gilstrap of Alhambra; Associate Grand Royal Patron Thomas Toner of Long Beach; Grand Treasurer Louise Heinicke of Whittier; Grand Conductress Leila Bolin of Los Angeles; Grand Associate Conductress Abigail Dennis of San Jose; Grand Prelate Zelma Blackshear of Alhambra; Grand Marshal Oeta Perry of Los Angeles; Grand Faith Bessie Elmer of Beverly Hills; Grand Sentinel David Butler of Pasadena; Grand Page Viola Maul of Maywood; Grand Lecturer Nina Cheney of Los Angeles; Assistant Grand Lecturers Alice Good of Los Angeles, Maurie Friend of La Crescenta, May White of Medford, Oregon, Esther Thompson of North Hollywood, Blanche Smith of Long Beach and Myrtle Nelson of Pasadena; Grand Representative Eunice Forbes, to Scotland; Matthew Laakson, to Oregon; William Polp, to Florida and May Caplan to Indiana.

Mrs. Weber gave an inspiring talk on "Freedom of Choice" followed by supreme and grand officers who amplified the subject, after which congratulations were extended to her. Twenty of her 1949 Association members presented a gift to her, which she received with gracious remarks. Lomita Court also made a monetary presentation through its royal matron in the form of a beautiful corsage.

Past Royal Matron Ann Long acted as mistress of ceremonies and the national emblem was escorted by Past Royal Matron Frances Hathaway with Estelle Des Jardines and Rose Schmidt acting as marshals.

Torrance Accordionettes, under direction of Mrs. Betty Thomas, presented a musical program with many dancing numbers. Included in this group was Roger Weber, saxophonist and grandson of the honoree, who played "Beautiful Dreamer," the song chosen by his grandmother during the year she acted as royal matron of Lomita Court. Operatic piano solos, beautifully rendered by Louise Heinicke of Whittier, completed the program.

Decorations in the hall were beautiful baskets of gladioli. The banquet room tables were artistically arranged and decorated in red roses, gladioli, and ivy with silver crescents gracing each table. White favors, tied with blue, and the blue napkins inscribed "Sally Weber" completed a very pretty picture. Chairman of the evening was Helen Wilson.

Never had Lomita Court been host to such a large gathering of supreme and grand officers as well as matrons, patrons, members and friends, it was decided at the close of the evening.

Torrance Blvd.

We've been servicing cars for more than 20 years—15 years of it right here in Torrance—say Audrey "Red" Brown and Ben D. Stewart, owners of the Brown and Stewart Texaco station at Torrance boulevard and Madrid avenue.

The two men built their modern station in 1917, after they had spent 11 years servicing Torrance motorists from other locations about town.

They offer complete motor repair, tune-ups, and servicing at their popular automotive center. Red takes care of the repair orders; Ben looks after the servicing—each is a specialist in his line.

Open between 7 a.m. and 8 p.m. each week day, the boys take it a little easier on Sunday and stay open only from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. Glen Brown and Walter Hillier are on hand to assist Red and Ben with the servicing and repair work.

This is really an automotive drug store. The owners carry a full line of auto accessories and promise lightning service on any items they do not stock.

So for your Texaco products, "The Best Friend Your Car Ever Had," it is Brown and Stewart on Torrance boulevard—the Wilshire boulevard of Torrance.
